

3305 Clark Lane
Ste D PMB 238
Columbia, MO 65202

Duty Handgun Training

Synopsis

This course is designed to provide annual maintenance training on handgun shooting fundamentals and safe weapon handling to licensed law enforcement officers. The course evaluates student's skills through attendance and participation in various range drills as well as the completion of a firearms qualification.

C.L.E.E. Credit

Skill Development-Firearms (4 hours)

Cost

$80.00 / person

Note

Payment is required to secure a seat. Students are required to be competent and safe firearms handlers and capable of following shooting drill instructions. Students are required to bring their own semi-auto pistol for use during training. A minimum of 250 rounds of ammunition are required. No firearms or ammunition will be provided. A detailed list of equipment requirements will be emailed to the student following course registration.